

COMING EVENT . . .

Our next event will be an Organ Recital by JOAN LIPPINCOTT — Tuesday, November 9, 7:30 PM at Lippis Hall in Slee Concert Hall, UB's North Campus. Don't miss this opportunity to hear this outstanding teacher/performer in what might be her last performance in Western New York. Put this date on your calendar now so you won't forget it. Complete information about this event will be in the November Bombarde.

NEXT BOARD MEETING

The next Board Meeting will take place on Friday, October 29, 7:30 PM at University Presbyterian Church, 3334 Main Street, Buffalo — at the intersection of Main St. and Niagara Falls Blvd. There is a parking lot behind the church — enter off of Niagara Falls Blvd. Please let Chris Snyder (832-4969) know if you are not able to attend.

OUR CHAPTER WEB SITE

As was announced in the September newsletter, our chapter now has it's own web site thanks to John Novak. He has done a beautiful job of setting this up for us. Check it out at: www.agobuffalo.org. If you have suggestions for additions to the site please let John know about it. You can e-mail him at: jpnovak79@yahoo.com. Let him know what you think about the new web site and thank him for his fine work. [See info. in box — bottom right]

PLEASE NOTE: The calendar of events for the 2010-2011 season is available at the web site, and the Bombarde will be available as well. So if there are future problems with the e-mailing of the newsletter, it will always be available to you. Please also note that to get to the "Positions Open" information, which is for members only, you will need to enter: username: agomember, and password: memberago

PROGRAM COMMITTEE STILL NEEDS MEMBERS

The Program Committee is still in need of members. If you can help by serving the chapter in this way please contact Debi Overton, chair at 688-8085 or debi93@verizon.net.

FROM THE DEAN . . .

Greetings everyone. I'm writing this on a beautiful October day after enjoying the weather outdoors earlier.

Our first event was successful. We owe a debt of thanks to Marlene Harrington (for both hosting and participating in the Meet, Eat, and Sing), Debi Overton, for teaming with Marlene to present the workshop, Tim Socha, for organizing and setting up our Bach Yard Sale, and Lisa Schultz and her kids for preparing and serving our wonderful meal. The Reed Jerome library is a wonderful resource that is free for members to use. As we learned at the workshop, the library contains lots of excellent music, and we can really stretch our music budgets by using this resource. Marlene is always willing to help, and her work in this regard is much appreciated by all of us.

Our Bach Yard Sale netted over $150 for the chapter. I know I found some useful music (some chorale preludes by Helmut Walcha), and many of our other members took advantage of the sale. Moreover, it was gratifying to see our members share ideas with each other as we poured over the offerings at the sale. More than once I heard people say things like "Oh, I know that piece - I play it as a prelude often," as they were looking over the music. This is what the guild is about — organists helping and supporting each other.

Our next event is the members recital on October 22. Our member/performers are Kotoe Shimojo, Jim Flood, and Richard Herr. The event will be held at Trinity Episcopal Church on Delaware avenue. Come out and support (and enjoy) these talented musicians as they perform for a demanding audience - a bunch of other organists! This is a patron event, so please bring your patron ticket to drop in the collection plate. I received mine today from Roger Dahl, so you'll be receiving yours shortly if not already.

The next event, in November, is very exciting. Joan Lippincott will be performing on the wonderful Slee Hall instrument. It is also a patron event. After that, we take a break over the Advent/Christmas season and enjoy our next event, the "Post-Epiphany Dinner," in January.

I'll see you all at the members recital.

Best wishes until then, Curt Holmes, CAGO, Dean
