ELECTION RESULTS

For those of you were were not at the Annual Meeting and Election in May, here are the results. The following members were elected to serve a three year term on the Executive Committee: Abigail Rockwood, Jeanne Suski, and Edward Witul. Curt Holmes is now Dean, and Debi Overton, Sub-Dean. The rest of the officers remain the same as last year. Our thanks to those who are willing to serve the chapter in this way.

OUTGOING CO-DEANS

Thank-yous go to our outgoing Co-Deans — Diane Green and Carole Harris who have given a tremendous amount of time and effort to the chapter over the past four years. They have sparked some new interests in the Guild and have done a great job!

NEW CHAPTER WEB SITE

Our chapter now has it's own web site thanks to John Novak. He has done a beautiful job of setting this up for us. Check it out at: www.agobuffalo.org. If you have suggestions for additions to the site please let John know about it. You can e-mail him at: jpnovak79@yahoo.com. Let him know what you think about the new web site and thank him for his fine work.

FROM THE DEAN . . .

Well, our nice hot summer is fast drawing to a close. I spent part of today picking tomatoes from my small vegetable garden. I trust you all had an excellent summer and are looking forward to the increased activities we organists will be facing once September arrives. My wife and I enjoyed three weeks at Chautauqua in July, and we heard some excellent music, which included chamber concerts, orchestra concerts, and recitals by Chautauqua Organist Jarad Jacobson, an excellent player who also directs the Chautauqua choir. The organ in the amphitheater is the world's largest outdoor organ, and it is impressive.

I am honored to have been chosen to be your dean for the next two years. It's a position I held once before (in the late 1990's), and it is a great pleasure to work with such a fine executive committee and membership. Thank you all for giving me this opportunity.

As you can see from the enclosed program, we have an excellent season approaching. Our first event, on September 10, will be the meet, eat, and sing at North Presbyterian Church. The "sing" part of the program will be an introduction to our Reed Jerome Library, a valuable resource available to all members. Marlene Harrington and Debi Overton have volunteered to lead this program, and it will give those of us who may not be familiar with the library (located at North Presbyterian) a chance to learn about the excellent anthems we can borrow to use with our choirs.

I'd like to give a special "Thank-You" to our retiring co-deans, Diane Green and Carole Harris. They have done an excellent job of leadership for the chapter during their tenure, and we are grateful to them.

I hope that all of our members will take advantage of the program that has been assembled for the 2010-2011 season. There are excellent recital and workshop opportunities, and we should all try to attend as many as we can.

Best wishes for a great fall season.

– Curt Holmes, CAGO, Dean
