Rev. Msgr. David G. LiPuma, Pastor & Rector, Our Lady of Victory National Shrine & Basilica President, Our Lady of Victory Institutions

Our Lady of Victory National Shrine and Basilica

Position: Director of Music Ministries, Organist, Choirmaster

Location: 767 Ridge Road, Lackawanna, NY 14218

The parish numbers over three thousand families and attracts thousands of pilgrims from all over the world each year. The candidate will be responsible for three weekend liturgies: Saturday Vigil at 4:30 PM, Sunday at 8:00 AM and 12:00 Noon as well as additional Christmas, Holy Week, Holy Days and special liturgies/services during the year. Attendance at bimonthly Liturgy Committee meetings is expected. A thorough knowledge of the documents of Vatican II as well as the musical patrimony of the Church are needed in the planning and executing of these liturgies. Proficiency in organ skills as well as strong choral leadership are essential. At present, the position is twenty hours per week.

The director is expected to lead, train and rehearse the adult choir, oversee the budget in terms of purchasing needed music and supplies and scheduling the tuning and maintenance of the 52-rank Delaware/Moeller pipe organ in the choir loft. He/she should be available for consultation with the contemporary ensembles, if needed.

The candidate will be responsible for the large number of weddings and funerals and if he/she does not provide the music for these events, he/she is responsible for their coverage and overseeing the music planned to safeguard the integrity of the liturgy.

Compensation commensurate with achieved academic degrees or demonstrated competency in consultation with current diocesan salary guidelines.
